The Districts

Eight distinctive districts comprise the downtown:

San Jose MarketCenter

The northern gateway to downtown bustles with new retail activity. From the busy major retailers of Target, Michael's and Office Depot to the quaint splendor of River Street, shoppers and coffee aficionados alike are sure to find what they need.

St. James Park and Vicinity

An area of hidden treasures, a walk through St. James Park reveals protected historic architecture, new residences and gems such as a German beerhouse and a clothing store for blue-collar workers, all surrounding a beautiful, shady park with lush, cool grass that serves as home to free summer concerts and outdoor movie screenings.

San Pedro Square & Vicinity

San Jose's restaurant row pours out good cheer with every meal and is home every Friday May-December of the Downtown San Jose Farmers' Market.

Historic District & Vicinity

Discover a variety of retailers and restaurants tucked inside some of downtown's oldest and grandest buildings. From zoot suits to engagement rings, ahi to egg rolls, and comedy clubs to cozy hideaways, there's plenty to do in and around the Historic District.

City Hall & Vicinity

Build a new City Hall – complete with rotunda, fountain and plaza – then add 1,700 employees, and downtown has the recipe for a cool new district. New restaurants mix with old favorites in an area undergoing its 21st Century Renaissance.

Convention & Cultural District

Make a day of exploring museums, relaxing in the urban greenery of Plaza de Cesar Chavez, strolling a paseo, catching a matinee at downtown's multiscreen movie theater, taking in a show at the Center for Performing Arts or San Jose Repertory Theatre, and staying overnight to do it all over again at one of several upscale downtown hotels.

SoFA (South First Area) & Vicinity

SoFA continues to redefine downtown's entertainment experience, especially when nightclubs, art galleries and the California Theatre light up South First Street. Dine, listen to live music, see a performance and cap off the night at a gallery or spinning across the dance floor.

Arena/Diridon & Vicinity

This is where urban meets utopian. The hustle and bustle of downtown juxtaposes with the serenity of the Guadalupe River Park and Gardens, a carousel and playground, and the ultimate entertainment venue in the city's core: the HP Pavilion. Neighboring eateries and businesses reflect the mood of this key area of downtown.

San Jose MarketCenter

503-695 Coleman Ave. at Taylor St.
Individual businesses will be opening throughout 2006
